

THE UJA-FEDERATION OF NEW YORK

JEAN AND ALBERT NERKEN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

GUIDELINES FOR THE JEAN AND ALBERT NERKEN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

1. The Jean and Albert Nerken Scholarship Fund has been established at the United Jewish Appeal – Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York to provide financial assistance to needy Jewish individuals for secular studies only, in colleges, universities, graduate or professional schools.
2. Study must be at an accredited educational institution of higher learning approved by UJA-Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York.
3. Undergraduate freshmen are not eligible for the Jean and Albert Nerken Scholarship.
4. Applicants must be international students and must not have US citizenship. International students must use their address at their home country as their permanent address.
5. Students must be studying in NYC's five boroughs, Long Island, or Westchester.
6. Each student selected will receive a scholarship for up to four years of his or her education. A commitment to each student will be limited to one year at a time, and students must re-apply each year for consideration.
7. Financial assistance will not be provided for religious studies, or to GRADUATE students who are receiving full tuition waivers.
8. No student may apply for or receive more than one scholarship per year from the various Funds established at UJA-Federation (e.g. Jean and Albert Nerken Scholarship Fund, Rose Biller Endowment Fund, Selim and Rachel Benin Scholarship Fund).

Hebrew Free Loan Society fosters financial stability and opportunity among lower-income New Yorkers by providing access to safe, affordable credit in the form of interest-free loans. Since 1892, HFLS has provided nearly $380 million to more than 900,000 borrowers.

Hebrew Free Loan Society
675 3rd Avenue, 19th Floor
New York, NY 10017
212-687-0188
HFLS.ORG