ROSE BILLER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

ROSE BILLER SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

1. The UJA-Federation Rose Biller Scholarship Program provides scholarships to Jewish men and women with significant economic need attending undergraduate, graduate, and professional schools.
2. Biller applicants must be citizens or legal permanent residents of the United States. International students visiting the United States with F, B, M, J, A, or other visas are not eligible for this award.
3. Biller applicants must be Jewish residents of NYC's five boroughs, Long Island, or Westchester. Please note that returning students, who are not originally residents of NYC, Long Island, or Westchester who have registered to vote in these areas, are deemed to be residents for the purposes of applying for this scholarship.
4. Applicants must be students at colleges or graduate or professional schools located in NYC's five boroughs, Long Island, or Westchester, and must be at least sophomores (2nd year undergraduate students). Applicants must be physically in attendance at campuses in NYC, Long Island, or Westchester. Students who are studying abroad or at satellite campuses or who are completing internships outside of NYC, Long Island, or Westchester are not eligible to apply.
5. Each student selected for a Biller Scholarship will receive up to a maximum of $5,000. Students must re-apply each year.
6. Biller Scholarships will not be awarded to medical, dental, or law students (with the exception of CUNY law students) or any first year student.
7. All scholarship decisions are final.

\ If you are not awarded, or if the award amount is not enough to cover the cost of your college expenses, you may apply for an interest-free Undergraduate Loan of up to $30,000 ($7,500 per year for up to 4 years).*

Hebrew Free Loan Society fosters financial stability and opportunity among lower-income New Yorkers by providing access to safe, affordable credit in the form of interest-free loans. Since 1892, HFLS has provided nearly $380 million to more than 900,000 borrowers.
